The Committee on Privileges and Elections of the House have submitted two reports on the McLean case, one vacating the seat from the date of its adoption, and the other giving the member three days from adoption in which to swear. The latter report reads as follows:

To the House of Delegates:

The Committee on Privileges and Elections, in the case of Dr. E. P. McLean, member of the House of Delegates from the county of Mecklenburg, beg leave to report that they find: That Dr. McLean is not deprived of his right to a seat in this body, because of his being a Federal officeholder. That Dr. McLean has failed to take the oath prescribed by the Constitution for the members of the General Assembly before entering upon the discharge of his duties. His name has been, in consequence, properly stricken from the rolls, and he has not been permitted to perform the functions of the office. But your committee is of the opinion that his refusal to take the oath did not in fact vacate the seat; and that, until some action has been taken by the body in the premises, it is competent for a member to present himself, take the oath and occupy his seat.

Your committee is of the opinion that, inasmuch as the case has been pending in committee since early in the session, and as Dr. McLean has been naturally awaiting its decision, it is but fair and reasonable that the members from Mecklenburg should be notified of its decision, and given an opportunity of yet complying with the Constitution.

Your committee, therefore, respectfully recommends the adoption of the resolution appended to the report of C. A. Heermann, a member of the subcommittee, to which this matter was referred; which report is made a part of this.

Respectfully submitted,

S. L. KELLEY, Chairman.
C. A. HEERMANN,
J. J. ROBERTSON,
JAMES R. CATON,
E. C. JORDAN.

In concurring in the above recommendation upon the additional condition that Dr. McLean, if now holding the Federal position referred to, shall resign the same before entering upon the discharge of his duties.

Educational matters in the Legislature are keeping pace with those on other subjects, and are receiving the attention of the public interest. The Schools and Colleges Committee of the House has set Thursday next at 4 P. M. for the hearing of the bill offered by Mr. Boaz, of Albemarle, creating an executive head for the University of Virginia, and the Senate bill chartering the Alumni Association of that institution will be considered at the same time. From what can be learned, both bills are likely to be reported in their present form.

On Wednesday, February 19th, the special joint committee having charge of the salary bill, Hon. B. C. Folger, of argument on the bill to establish additional normal schools for the State, and Dr. Frazer and other prominent educators will be present and address the committee in favor of the proposition.

The House Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns hold an important meeting yesterday morning, and among other business transacted fixed next Tuesday at 10 o'clock A. M. as the time for taking up the bill offered by Hon. D. L. Toney, of Manchester, providing for the sale of municipal franchises to the highest bidder. The bill is one of great moment to cities and towns, and will create much interest until it is finally disposed of. The committee rejected the Senate amendments to the Matthews dog law, and after hearing the reading of the voluminous good roads measure of Halifax, by Major H. A. Edmunds, will have a meeting this morning for the use of members in considering it.

The bill of Hon. John Whitehead, of Norfolk, for the benefit of trained nurses in one of the peculiar features of the bill, and the amendments thereto, which will be read as follows, the last two clauses constituting the amendment:

"Order in which debts of decedents are to be applied, etc."

To the claims of physicians, not exceeding $50 for services rendered during the last illness of the decedent; and accounts of druggists, not exceeding the same amount, for articles furnished during the same period; and claims of professional nurses, not exceeding the same amount, for services rendered during the same period; and accounts of incorporated hospitals and incorporated sanitariums, not exceeding the same amount, for articles furnished and services rendered, during the same period."

With as the time for hearing argument on the bill offered by Hon. D. L. Toney of Manchester, requiring street railway companies to vestibule their cars during certain months of the year. The bill is in the nature of an amendment to the Folkes law on the subject, and extends the time when cars are required to be vestibuled. The committee will in a few days make its report on the corporation section of the new Constitution.

The Senate and House Committees on Finance yesterday heard argument in favor of an additional appropriation for the Eastern and Western State Hospitals.

Dr. Benjamin Blackford and Dr. L. S. Four, superintendents of the respective institutions, made strong speeches for more money and they were assisted by several members of the two boards. No action was taken by the committees.

The special committee submitted the following:

The Eastern State Hospital, through the undersigned special committee, respectfully represent that said hospital is urgently in need of the following special appropriations:

1st. Balance due contractors on new building.....$5,262.13
Balance due architects on new building.....800.00

2d. For furnishing said building 103 beds, blankets, pillows, etc. (213 rooms), rebuilding (fence, steam pipes and putting grounds in order).....$2,837.87

The House Committee for Courts of Justice yesterday reported favorably a bill offered by Hon. L. Gordon Cumming, of Hampton, amending the divorce laws of the State so as to provide that a decree for divorce a mensa et tora obtained on the ground of cruelty may be enlarged by the court into a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, where there has been no reconciliation after three years of separation. At present this can only be done where the temporary separation was obtained on the ground of desertion. It is regarded as a coincidence that the discussion was carried on entirely by the bachelors of the committee.

An amusing incident occurred in the House yesterday during the debate over the salary bill. Hon. B. C. Folger, of Richmond, was speaking away in his swaggering manner, making some of his awkward gestures, when he swung one of his long arms around and knocked a glass of water over the head of a member of the opposite party, who was sitting near by. The member, who was near by and smashing the glass into splinters. The popular member from Richmond proceeded apparently unconscious of what he had done.

Hon. S. M. Newhouse made a big fight for having the salary of Adjutant-General William Nalle restored from $2,000 to $2,400 per year, from which figure it had been cut by the committee. He finally succeeded and was very happy over the matter last night.

The General Laws Committee of the House yesterday reported favorably the bill offered by Hon. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, to protect birds in their nests and eggs. The bill was defeated at a former session of the present Assembly.

THE LAW CLASS OF RICHMOND COLLEGE

Mr. Lane Lacy was Chosen to Fill the Office of President After a Very Exciting Contest Yesterday.

The law class yesterday afternoon elected Mr. Lane Lacy as their president. The election was one of the most hotly-contested that has been held this year. Mr. Lacy represented the literary society faction of the class while Mr. Schenberger, his opponent, represented the non-society element.

The representative of A. H. Pelting, manufacturers of fraternity jewelry, was at the college last night with a well-assorted line of badges and fraternity novelties. He did a good business with the Greek-letter men.

Professor P. P. Deane, who is spending a few days here, is an alumnus of Richmond College, and now occupies the chair of English literature at Windsor Academy. He was among the most popular young men at college and is always a welcome guest among the students as well as the faculty.

NOT TO MOVE THE LIGHT

Will Remain at Thirteenth and Semmes Streets.

VACCINATION ON MONDAY

Young Man Ordered Out of the City
Dr. Pettit Has Been Heard from.
Inquires After His Wife.

Manchester News.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, No. 1102 Hull Street, through persuasive arguments and lengthy petitions, the Light Committee of the Manchester Council determined last night to rescind its recommendation that the light at Thirteenth and Semmes Streets be removed to Fourteenth and Semmes.

At a former meeting of the committee the request of citizens of Fourteenth Street, that a light be placed at Semmes Street at the intersection, was complied with, but as the city was shy of lights, the one at Thirteenth Street was ordered to be moved one block. This set the Thirteenth Street people to work, and they came back with a petition a yard long, and with several very convincing talkers, and the committee in lack of opposition could do nothing but reconsider the former action.

In doing so, however, they did something that is likely to bring a lot of Thirteenth Street people after them, for compromise action was taken, and it was recommended that the light at Thirteenth and McDonough Streets be removed to Fourteenth and McDonough.

Citizens who were present at the meeting were Messrs. Craig Sampson, Lamb, Barrett and Morse. All these gentlemen spoke in favor of permitting the light to remain at Thirteenth and Semmes Streets.

Mr. Morse was the gentleman who first started the thing. He said that he lived on that street, and he wanted to see how to keep out of the mud when he went home at night. "But," he said, "rather than have the light removed from Thirteenth and Semmes Streets, I'd see the light at Thirteenth and McDonough moved, provided you have no nearer lights. I don't want to see any lights moved, but I do want one on Fourteenth Street."

After some little debate, Mr. Patram made a motion to the effect that the Semmes Street light remain, and the McDonough Street light moved.

Then the petitioners thanked the committee and gracefully retired, and every body felt that he got what he wanted.

The work of the committee was cleared up for the year by the payment of several bills to the Passenger and Power Company, and found itself in a position to turn money into the treasury.

The committee has seventy lights at its disposal. Those present were Messrs. C. C. Cox, chairman; W. A. Gill, Jr. and R. L. Patram. Auditor Hall acted as clerk.

The Finance Committee and the Committee on Health will meet at 7:30 o'clock to-night.

CONTRACT AWARDED.
At the meeting of the Board of Health last night at the office of Dr. Hill, the president, the contract for the supply of vaccine virus for the public vaccination was awarded to Charles E. Friend, and the work of vaccination will begin on Monday. Four physicians will be engaged to do the work by districts. These physicians will be named at the meeting of this committee to-night.

W. J. Dobbin was discharged by Mayor Maurice yesterday morning on the charge of assaulting a man named McDonough several days ago. The complainant failed to appear.

HENRY GLASS, a suspicious character, was ordered to leave the city.

SAD DEATH.
The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Gilliam took place from the residence, No. 203 East Fifth Street, yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Funeral Director Morrisette. The child was found dead in bed yesterday morning, and is believed to have been suffocated by the bed clothing. Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam have been married about ten months.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PALMER.
The funeral of Mrs. Nannie B. Palmer, wife of Mr. George M. Palmer, who died Thursday night, will take place from Stockton-Street Baptist Church at 10 o'clock to-morrow. She was ill but a short time, and leaves her husband and three small children. Mr. Palmer is a conductor on the Seaboard Air Line.

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN.
Mayor Maurice yesterday afternoon ordered a young white man out of the city, thus ridding many people of a nuisance. He had been in Manchester several days, living on the kindness and charity of the natives, and violating his knowledge of the rights of Pythians in a fine manner.

The straw that broke the camel's back was the fact that he duped a well-known Pythian out of a sum of money which he said he wanted for food and lodging, and he was afterwards found "blowing" it in liquor.

He had told numbers of people a hard luck story and had been given assistance by many. Yesterday about noon he was arrested and carried before the Mayor, and he was told to get out of the city quick, which he did.

PELLIER HEARD FROM.
Mr. P. A. S. Brine, British vice-consul, has received a letter from Dr. Pettit, who is now in Canada, returning money lent him by Mr. Brine and inquiring about his wife in Manchester.

Pettit married a young girl in Manchester about a year ago, after he had been charged with criminal assault. The girl was arrested in Manchester and carried to the Second Station in Richmond, the alleged crime having been committed in that city. The girl refused at first to marry him and the case was sent on to the grand jury. Afterward the ceremony was performed, and then Pettit left here for Canada.

He always declared he loved the girl and would do everything for her happiness, but her people objected to the marriage.

MANY SUITS MAY RESULT

Legislature Cannot Be Too Cautious in Its Actions.

THERE IS DANGER IN STORE

Lieutenant Governor and Speaker Walk Around With Copies of the New Constitution, and Carefully Study It.

There will in the nature of things very likely be many suits growing out of acts passed by the Legislature at its present session.

It is possible, even probable, that some of the acts passed, or that will be passed, will not conform to the requirements of the new Constitution.

Lieutenant Governor Willard, and Speaker Ryan walk around with copies of the Constitution in their pockets, which they carefully study at every spare moment.

Yesterday, after the Senate had been adjourned, the Lieutenant-Governor, while having his shoes "shined," read the Constitution—or, rather, it should be stated, that he studied it, for he had already read over many times.

Captain Willard remarked to a friend that in taking the vote upon measures, especially where this is done under a suspension of the rules, the Senate could not proceed too carefully.

It is quite likely that there will be many litigations to test the constitutionality of acts passed, especially where there is objection made to them.

MADE NO DEFENSE

Farmer Steals a Steer from His Neighbor in Page County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LURAY, VA., January 30.—Isaac Jones, a farmer of this county, was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year by Judge Booth, of the County Court, to-day.

The case against Jones is a novel one. About one year ago Jones, so he says, was in the Blue Ridge, in this county, when he came across a fine steer, which he drove a distance of five miles to Tappahannock county, and sold it to a neighbor of that county, for $20, about half its value.

The animal belonged to Mr. Paul Baker, of this county, and was identified by him after a search of several months. Jones was arrested about two weeks ago, having been in hiding since November, when he was indicted by the grand jury of this county. He made no defense and said he was drunk when he drove the animal away.

Page county has just put on the market $30,000 of county bonds in denominations of $50, $500 and $1,000, which are to bear 4 per cent. interest. There are two classifications of the bonds, $30,000 to be repaid in two years from date of issue and redeemable at the county's option. Seven $5,000 bonds running to May, 1910, and two $4,000 bonds, payable in 1912, have also been put on the market.

him, while living in Mecklenburg in the year 1858, he was hopefully converted, and connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church.
